

LATEST NEWS

- The Lady vanishes
- Suspect in Sydney gangland execution shot dead inside unit
- Childcare industry slams government's omnibus bill
- PM calls energy crisis talks amid gas shortage blackout warnings
- Deal to block foreign political donations breaks down

EDITOR'S PICKS

POPULAR

See your ad here

Community

What's on around your town

Kylie Stevens

@kylie_stevens90

7 Mar 2017, 12:37 a.m.

Share Tweet Email

Heading back to school: Former Our Lady of Mercy College students will be Alumnae ambassadors at the school's annual open day on Sunday. Picture: OLMC

- Men of League Foundation bowls day at Club Merrylands this Friday from noon. Special guests include Nathan Cayless and John Peard. Cost is $50, which includes lunch, bowls and two drinks. Men's and women's teams available. RSVP: Garry, 0418 699 2587
- Our Lady of Mercy College will hold an open day this Sunday, 10am-2pm, Victoria Road, Parramatta. Tour the facilities and hear from Mercy Girls, staff, parents and ex-students. Live entertainment and food stalls. Registrations: olmc.nsw.edu.au
- Linwood House open day this Sunday, 11am-4pm, 25 Byron Road, Guildford. Vintage car displays, music, craft stalls, sausage sizzle and Devonshire tea at this state heritage listed home. Entry is $3, under-5s are free
- The Catholic Diocese of Parramatta will host a St Patrick's Day festival on March 18, 2pm-5pm, at St Patrick's Cathedral Precinct, Marist Place, Parramatta. Live entertainment, Irish food and rides.
- Taurus Service Centre will hold a World's Greatest Shave public event on March 18, 10am-3pm at 145 Gilba Road, Girraween. Sausage sizzle, raffle prizes, photo booth and more. Details: 9636 7797.
- Our Lady of Mount Carmel Primary School will host its biannual school and parish fete on March 24, 3-9pm, Bennett Street, Wentworthville. Proceeds will go towards improving the school. Entry is free, unlimited ride wristbands can be purchased for $27.

See your ad here

See your ad here